REGULATIONS OF BRUNEL ARTS MEMBERSHIP

- 1) All Brunel students must become members of Brunel Arts in order to qualify for free weekly courses. Student Members may join any of our weekly courses running during the academic year (subject to availability).
- 2) Once members, Brunel students can take weekly classes for free, paying materials costs as appropriate.
- 3) There is no reduction available for joining part-way through the academic year.
- 4) All fees will be taken at the time of enrolment, and are non-refundable. Payment can be made by credit or debit card in person or by phone.
- 5) In the event of over-subscription of any course(s) your name will be placed on a waiting list and you will be contacted by bulk email via your Brunel email address when a place becomes free. Allocation of spaces will be made by speed of response and not by position on the waiting list. We also reserve the right to allocate spaces to students in person.
- 6) To meet the high demands for places on our ceramic and art courses, student booking will be limited in the first instance to one class per student in each discipline. Participation in music classes and ensembles is not limited.
- 7) Your details will be stored on Brunel Arts' database only, so we can contact you to advise of any changes to scheduled classes and also to monitor trends within departments and colleges.
- 8) Please note: we expect you to arrive on time for your class. Late attendance will not be tolerated. You will have 15 minutes from the start of the class to arrive; but after this time, attendance may be withheld. This is to avoid disruption and repetition to the class proceedings.
- 9) Please note: filming of any kind is not permitted in the studios or at Brunel Arts' events unless prior permission is sought from the University.
