

Date	Time	Workshop	Workshop Description	Location
Wednesday 15 th January	11-12	Writing Academically	This session looks at the academic writing process from start to finish and gives you useful tips and resources to help develop your writing.	Bann 226
Thursday 16 th January	3-4	Reflective Writing	Learn what makes for successful reflective writing, focusing particularly on how to integrate theory with your experiences.	Bann 226
Tuesday 28 th January	10:30- 11:30	Critiquing and Analysing Research	Reading through lots of books and articles but unsure about how to use these in your own assignment? This workshop will examine how to use academic literature to build arguments, develop critical analysis and evaluations in essays and dissertations.	Bann 226
Thursday 30 th January	11-12	The Art of Paraphrasing	Understanding how to accurately reference sources used to produce assignments is crucial in avoiding possible accusations of plagiarism. This session focuses on paraphrasing and how to paraphrase sources. *	Bann 226
Wednesday 5 th February	2-3	Dealing with Writer's Block	Have you ever felt as though you can't start or continue writing your assignment or dissertation? This workshop will help you with practical tips for what to do when writer's block strikes. Free up your ideas and get your writing back on track!	Bann 226
Thursday 6 th February	2-3	Writing Formally	Writing at university requires the adoption of a formal tone and style of writing based on the use of standard written English. This session reviews some of the features of formal writing.	Bann 226
Tuesday 18 th February	1-2	Writing within your Word Count	Are you struggling to stay within your word count for your assignment or dissertation and don't know how to make your writing more concise? This workshop will help you identify patterns of repetition or wordiness in your writing so you can work within your word limit.	Bann 226

You can view workshops online at <http://libguides.brunel.ac.uk/ask>. Booking is not essential.

More details about ASK services, including individual advice, can be found on our website: <http://www.brunel.ac.uk/ask>

* Workshops on how to use specific referencing styles are run by the Library. Visit <http://libguides.brunel.ac.uk/libsmart>

Date	Time	Workshop	Workshop Description	Location
Wednesday 19 th February	11-12	Structuring your Discussion and Conclusion	This workshop focuses on evaluating the results of your research and linking that to previous literature in order to write a relevant and critical discussion chapter. We will also look at how to write an effective conclusion that highlights your contribution to your field and what future research questions have emerged from your project.	Bann 226
Thursday 20 th February	1-2	Critical thinking and writing	Critical analysis is often one of the most important components of a university assignment, so learning to write critically is essential to doing well in your coursework. This workshop teaches you how to demonstrate your critical thinking and analysis skills in your writing.	Bann 226
Thursday 27 th February	2-3	Dealing with Feedback	Ever wondered what to do with the feedback you receive on your work and how to use it effectively? If so, then come along to this workshop, which explores how to understand the feedback you receive and put it into action in your future assignments.	Bann 226
Wednesday 4 th March	3-4	Writing Academically	This session looks at the academic writing process from start to finish and gives you useful tips and resources to help develop your writing.	Bann 226
Tuesday 10 th March	11-12	Critical thinking and writing	Critical analysis is often one of the most important components of a university assignment, so learning to write critically is essential to doing well in your coursework. This workshop teaches you how to demonstrate your critical thinking and analysis skills in your writing.	Bann 226
Wednesday 18 th March	11-12	Preparing for Exams	The workshop looks at how to organise your material into manageable sections, strategies for processing and remembering your material and for designing a revision timetable.	Bann 226

You can view workshops online at <http://libguides.brunel.ac.uk/ask>. Booking is not essential.

More details about ASK services, including individual advice, can be found on our website: <http://www.brunel.ac.uk/ask>

* Workshops on how to use specific referencing styles are run by the Library. Visit

<http://libguides.brunel.ac.uk/libsmart>

